

Documentary series offered by Friends of Eldredge Public Library Learning Series shown at the Orpheum from 9:30 to Noon on the listed dates. Sign up at the Eldredge Library. Suggested donation $10 for the series.

With movies, a script is written and the actors chosen before filming even begins. With a documentary, it is the filming that captures reality and the story unfolds before your eyes. Our local documentarians and presenters hope you enjoy this season's fascinating and educational offering of films. Come ready to be entertained and educated – you'll be glad you did!

April 8th

EYE ON THE 60s – presented by local director Chris Szvedo

It was the era of Bob Dylan, the March on Washington, Woodstock and The Beatles. An authentic piece of American history, EYE ON THE 60s is an intimate portrait of former LIFE photographer Rowland Scherman. Szvedo captures both the essence of Scherman's creative eye and the essence of America's most remarkable decade.

April 15th

A Gullwing at Twilight – presented by director Chris Szvedo

Experience the adventures of 87 year-old racing legend John Fitch as he takes to the Bonneville Salt Flats in his Signature Mercedes Gullwing. This visually absorbing essay tells the story of a man fueled by challenge and quietly refusing to give in to the traditional notion of retirement.

April 22nd

Bag It – presented by Jesse Mechling, Marine Education Director at Provincetown Center of Coastal Studies

Is your life too "plastic"? There is a powerful message in this documentary about the dangers of plastic. You will be both entertained and educated. From politics, single use disposables, waste and recycling to ocean health and our own health, bag it is a remarkable look at plastics. Jesse will also introduce you to the works at the Center for Coastal studies.

April 29th

Dying To Get In: Undocumented Immigration at the U.S. / Mexico Border – presented by local directors Brett Tolley and Chris Seufert

This short film offers a first-hand look at the harsh reality of today's border crossing. The documentary is directed by local filmmaker Brett Tolley, who embedded himself with Mexican's making the crossing. Following this short Chris Seufert of Mooncusser Films will show a short film of Brett Tolley's father 'Gillnetting on the Dawn T.

May 6th

Documentary by local director Andrew Buckley –Title: to be announced

