April 2019

Early Release Paint Party Wednesday, April 10 2:00 to 3:30

For Students in Gr. K to 4

Join us for a fun, creative afternoon with Jackie from Kreativ Paint Parties as she guides us through some spring painting techniques. Participants will take home their own masterpiece on canvas! This is an early release day, so a light snack will be served. Space is limited; registration is required.

Tween & Teen Exit the Room! Thursday, April 18th 6:30 to 8:30

For Students in Gr. 5 to 12

We have another fun evening planned for our tweens and teens during school vacation. Does your tween/teen enjoy the challenge of an escape room? This fun event will ask registrants to solve puzzles and riddles and crack codes to escape The Mysterious Museum, an imaginary environment — all while the clock is ticking! Pizza, beverage and desserts will be provided. Registration is required.

Meet Lillian!

We are pleased to share that we have hired a new assistant who will join our Youth Services team beginning April 1st. Lillian Terry-Welsh returns to Chatham after completing her Masters Degree in England. She brings a strong passion for reading, musical talents, and much more to the position. She's also very familiar with the Youth Services, as she was an active young adult patron and volunteer while growing up in Chatham.

We are thrilled to welcome Lillian back to our Library, and we look forward to benefitting from her enthusiasm. Please stop by to say hello!

Wanted...

Youth Services is about to change the theme of our play alcove, and we need a clean, sturdy box no larger than a small, college dorm refrigerator to make a pizza oven. Please call or email Tammy if you have one to donate!
